Introduction

Hello, dear friend!

You have either finished the book, Making Crooked Places Straight, and want to dig deeper, travel farther, or climb higher or you are starting the book and want to dig deeper, travel farther, and climb higher.

Either way, I want to encourage you on your journey. By choosing this path, you will discover hidden truths that will impact your life in ways you couldn't imagine. As you spend time pondering the questions, seeking the Lord, and searching your heart, God will pour into you treasures of heaven. You will never be the same. Hallelujah to the Lamb of God!

Before you turn the page, let's pray:

Father God,

I praise you for who you are in my life, my Lord and Savior, my Comforter and Friend, my Redeemer and Strong Tower. I trust you in leading and guiding me throughout this study. Knowing you will be with me, speaking to my heart, gives me great peace on this journey, even joy from the Giver of Life. I bless you, Lord, as you make my crooked places straight, in Jesus's name, amen.

God bless you as you begin a life-changing experience!

Chapter 1 In the Beginning

1. What does a new beginning look like for you at this point in your life? Are you ready for a new beginning? What direction are you sensing from the Lord?
2. What emotions/thoughts come to the forefront when you hear the phrase “a new beginning?”
3. If the emotions aren’t on the positive side of the spectrum, what steps can you take to help bring them to that place?

4. Stepping into a new beginning obviously requires trust in God. On a scale of 1-10, where does your trust level land? What steps are you planning on taking to increase the number?

5. Have you ever bitten off more than you can chew? What happened? What did you do about it? Was it God-directed or me-directed?

6. Spiritual warfare is a reality for believers. What is your go-to method? What happens when it doesn't work?

7. Do you have relentless friends? Are they annoying or a blessing?

8. How do you handle God's relentlessness?

The Garden of Eden. Paradise.

That is, until “perverted perfection became perfected evil and slithered into the place he called home, deceiving the created likeness of God on the earth.”

While satan still weaves crooked paths in the lives of people today through the perverse spirit, God’s promises are still true—to make our crooked places straight, to be imitators of His Son. Join Penelope Kaye on an intimate journey, leading to the transformation Paul writes about in 2 Corinthians 3:18:

*“But we all, with unveiled face,
beholding as in a mirror the glory of the Lord,
are being transformed into the same image from glory to glory,
just as by the Spirit of the Lord.”*

Transforming. Fashioning. Becoming.
A new creation designed by the Master, in the image of His Son.
Brilliant. Splendid. Magnificent.
A shining star in the midst of a crooked and perverse world.

A passionate lover of Jesus, Penelope Kaye makes her home in the Mountain West. With a strong Pentecostal background, her love for word studies and passion for setting captives free led her to write and teach numerous Bible studies, including “Adorning the Bride” and “Pools of Anointing in Worship.”

As a prophetic intercessor, she shares at prayer retreats, women’s conferences, and the pulpit of her local church. Ordained in ministry and an award-winning author, Penelope’s written numerous columns on prayer, faith, and the Bible. When not writing, teaching, and speaking, you can find her eating blueberries anytime of the day.
